

Rev. David and Mrs. Mary McGregor

Churches Served: Rev. McGregor attended public schools in Birmingham prior to attending Bethel University in McKenzie where he received the Bachelor of Arts degree. He attended Vanderbilt Divinity School for courses in preaching and counseling. He earned his Master's degree in evangelism from Scarritt College. He was raised in the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church in Birmingham and came under the Birmingham Presbytery and was ordained by them. He served congregations in Alabama, Kentucky and several in Tennessee including Brush Hill Cumberland Presbyterian Church and West Side Cumberland Presbyterian Church in Nashville, and First Cumberland Presbyterian Church in Columbia. He retired in April 2013 after twenty years at McCains Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

Offices Held: Served on the Board of Missions of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church

Information provided by the donor: Bro. McGregor as we affectionally called him, led us through the relocation and building of our new church building in 1963. The name Edgefield CPC was changed to Brush Hill CPC. Bro. McGregor and his family, wife Mary and and sons John David and Billy, were integral in the life of our church. God blessed our family through the lifelong relationship with the McGregor Family.
