Information provided by the donor: Jonathan was a true pastor to his church family. During his 34 years at Winchester CP Church, he baptized many children, perform their weddings, and then baptized their children. He was on call any hour of the day or night for his congregation. Jonathan was a visionary, and under his leadership, the church grew in membership, and then physical size. The church's worship expanded to traditional worship services and a contemporary service each Sunday morning. A building program added much-needed space for the growing church. Jonathan was also active in his community. He was a charter member of several local charitable organizations and served on the board for various businesses. In 2002, Jonathan was named Franklin County outstanding citizen of the year. He was a good and faithful servant, who tried to show the love of Jesus to everyone he met. Jonathan was married to his wife Barbara Clark for 47 years.
