

Rev. W. Jean and Regena Richardson

Churches Served: He attended Bethel College and the Cumberland Presbyterian Seminary. Served churches in Kentucky, Indiana, and Beaver Creek CPC in Tennessee.

Offices Held: Jean was actively involved in the synods and presbyteries of the denomination. He represent the denomination in Africa, Japan, Hong Kong, China, Macao and Germany. He was Moderator of the denomination in 1981. He was the Director of Missions Development in 1985.

Information provided by the donor: Jean was born to Wilbur and Edna Richardson in Hardin, Kentucky, in 1930. Jean's maternal grandfather, Rev. S. E. Powell, was a CP minister, as was Jean's uncle Rev. Thomas Powell. In January of 1982 Jean and Regena were invited to attend the opening session of the House of Representatives. Jean was named chaplain of the day and led the US Congress in prayer. Until his death in 2019 he loved the CPC, was loyal to his denomination, and enjoyed the fellowship in every church he served.
